

PRESIDENT RAPS G.O.P. PLATFORM BEFOGS ISSUE

Wilson Criticises Work Of Republican Convention.

URGES REFERENDUM

Says Democratic Party
Will Accept League
Issue.

New York, June 18.—In an interview given to the New York World, President Wilson declared he was "extremely confident that the Democratic convention at San Francisco will welcome the acceptance by the Republican party of my invitation to make the league of nations the issue in this campaign."

"I am even more confident," the president said, "that such referendum will confirm my faith that the American people desire it above anything else that a political party now may provide, and that they will condemn the Republican policy of denying them the consummation of their hopes. No one will recommend a referendum on that issue more than I."

"The processes by which the Chicago platform was accomplished seemed to me to have been essentially and scientifically Prussian in inspiration and method. Instead of quoting Washington and Lincoln, the Republican platform should have quoted Bismarck and Bernhardi, because the Republican attitude regarding the supreme issue, that can not be abandoned or disregarded, strug-gly suggests the arbitrary influences that dictated the doctrines of those two eminent persons."

"Every charge directed against me and my administration is obviously designed to belaud and negative the paramount issue confronting the people of America, to befog their sense of responsibility and make violation of the obligations they have assumed to be of small consequence. I sincerely believe that the attempt of the Republican party to win the sanction of the American people for its attempted evasion of these obligations will be decisively rebuffed."

Up to Democratic Convention.

"With one thing I am fully satisfied—that is that the Republican party in its platform has joined me in the suggestion I made in my letter to the guests at the Jackson dinner in Washington in January last. In that letter I expressed the hope that a sincere attempt would be made to determine the attitude of the American people on the league of nations by the resort to the genuinely democratic process of the referendum."

"Of course I have no way of anticipating the probable trend of sentiment that will be expressed in the Democratic national convention at San Francisco or forecasting the ultimate conclusions of that body. But I have every confidence that the delegates who will sit in that convention will repeat the challenge I issued to the Republican party and express their readiness to permit the people to decide between the vague and ambiguous declaration by the Republicans and a positive and definite expression of opinion by the Democratic party."

"Whatever else the Democratic party may do I hope that its convention at San Francisco will say just what it means on every issue and that it will not resort either to ambiguity or evasions in doing so. This thing (the league of nations) lies too deep to permit of any political sculduggery, any attempt to sidestep or evade moral and humanitarian responsibility, much too solemn to treat so lightly or ignore. I sincerely believe, however, that the vast majority of gentlemen who will sit in the San Francisco convention will appreciate the necessity and permanent value of keeping the word that America has given to the rest of the world."

The president also criticizes congress, accusing it of evading responsibility. "The Lever food control act," he said, "has proved to be one of the most effective agencies in preventing depredations at the expense of the people than almost any other measure now in operation. Time for repealing it is not yet. The senate has for 11 months had it in its hand to end conditions that are unmistakeably irksome to a great many of our citizens, because with the ratification of the peace treaty the operation of the laws that were enacted to safeguard the interests of the country in the war would automatically cease."

RAILROAD UNIONS TAKE REINS OF LABOR BODY

Rail Workers Assume Dominant Role In American Federation of Labor As Result Of Successful Fight.

Montreal, Que., June 18.—The railroad unions have assumed the dominant role in the American Federation of Labor as a result of their successful fight to have the convention endorse government ownership of railways. Officials of the railroad unions claim that they have now assumed leadership of the American labor movement.

The railroad men are in the saddle
today," declared S. H. Heberling, president of the switchmen's union of North America.

"The convention's action in indorsing government ownership with democratic control means that the policies of the federation of labor will be progressive from now on.
We officials do not care who they elect as officials of the federation so long as we can dictate the policies.
For the first time the federation has adopted a big constructive forward looking program. You might call it a revolution in the trade union movement, but may be evolution describes it better."

There was a division of opinion
today as to whether Samuel Gompers would retire as president of the federation because his leadership was repudiated by the convention. Many labor men close to Gompers expressed the belief that the veteran leader would not quit but continue to combat the extremists in the organization. It is evident that Gompers feels his defeat keenly.

For years he had led in person the fight against any proposal for government ownership and he openly denounced the Plumb plan of government ownership of railways.

Much comment is heard over the possibility of a clash between President Warren Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Gompers for leadership of American labor in the future. Although an "outsider" Stone's influence has been strongly felt in the convention, Stone heads the Plumb plan league and it was he who induced the railroad unions to adopt the Plumb plan in their demands.

The election of officers was on the schedule of business today. The railroad unions planned to elect two representatives to the executive council. W. H. Johnson of the Machinists and G. A. Franklin of the boiler makers pledged their support to J.
P. Noonan of the electrical workers who opposed Daniel J. Tobin of the teamsters as treasurer of the federation.

Denver has entered the contest with Los Angeles and Birmingham Ala., for the next convention.

Final accounting of Elwell's estate, it is said may show that his fortune of $500,000 has disappeared and that at the time of his death he was virtually a pauper.

The police are now positive that a woman guest was in Elwell's home shortly before he was shot but admit they have no information that would fasten the slaying upon her.

District Attorney Swann has directed that for the third time two young society women the husband of one of them and a young man friend be subjected to searching question-ings. One of these women, Swann, believes will eventually prove the key to the mystery by tracing El-well's movements to within two or three hours of the time he was shot.

Victor A. Von Schlegel and his divorced wife, Viola Kraus, have again been questioned. Both were members of the party at the Ritz Carlton which Elwell attended the night before his death. Miss Kraus is said to have admitted visiting Elwell twice in his home. The police have seized a revolver found in Von Schlegel's home but have not connected the weapon in any way with the slaying of Elwell. The statement of a taxicab driver late yesterday that he drove a man and a woman to Elwell's home early in the morning of the murder and heard a woman's scream come from inside the house, is discounted by authorities.

STATE POLICE ARE ADVOCATED BY CLUB

Zanesville, O., June 18.—The Ohio State automobile association, in convention here, approved the creation of a state police force in Ohio, advocated a greater attention to maintenance of state roads in the interest of the user and taxpayer rather than merely for the benefit of road material and other interests seeking exploitation for profit, and resolved to seek greater uniformity among city traffic codes.

New officers elected were: President, F. F. Bentley, Warren; secretary, Charles C. Jones, Columbus; treasurer, Jacob L. Will, Columbus;
trustees, Walter D. Meals and Fred
H. Caley of Cleveland and P. F.
Knowlton of Ashtabula. Next year's convention will be held in Youngstown.

Soviet Successes Reported.
London, June 18.—Russian Bolshevik forces have again advanced on the northern end of the Polish front, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow. Soviet successes on other sections of the line are also reported.
Dispatches from Warsaw state Poland is ready to enter into peace negotia-

To Support Hoover.
Detroit, June 18.—Herbert Hoover, defeated candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, will receive the support of the entire Michigan delegation on the first ballot at the national Democratic convention, leaders declared here.

San Francisco, Cal., June 18.—
Friends of William G. McAdoo today seriously doubted the authenticity of a date for the Presidential nomination,

I doubt much the authenticity of this report," declared Mrs. Antionette Funk of Chicago, one of the most active workers here in behalf of the Mc-Adoo boom.

McAdoo has announced his intention of remaining away from the convention. Governor Cox, of Ohio, will also remain at home, his manager E.
H. Moore, announced today.

According to Moore, Governor Cox would consider his presence here undignified.

PRESIDENT RAPS G.O.P. PLATFORM BEFOGS ISSUE

Wilson Criticises Work Of Republican Convention.

URGES REFERENDUM Says Democratic Party Will Accept League Issue.

New York, June 18.—In an interview given to the New York World, President Wilson declared he was "extremely confident that the Democratic convention at San Francisco will welcome the acceptance by the Republican party of my invitation to make the league of nations the issue in this campaign."

"I am even more confident," the president said, "that such referendum will confirm my faith that the American people desire it above anything else that a political party now may provide, and that they will condemn the Republican policy of denying them the consummation of their hopes. No one will recommend a referendum on that issue more than I."

"The processes by which the Chicago platform was accomplished seemed to me to have been essentially and scientifically Prussian in inspiration and method. Instead of quoting Washington and Lincoln, the Republican platform should have quoted Bismarck and Bernhardi, because the Republican attitude regarding the supreme issue, that can not be abandoned or disregarded, strangely suggests the arbitrary influences that dictated the doctrines of those two eminent persons."

"Every charge directed against me and my administration is obviously designed to belabor and negative the paramount issue confronting the people of America, to begot their sense of responsibility and make violation of the obligations they have assumed to be of small consequence. I sincerely believe that the attempt of the Republican party to win the sanction of the American people for its attempted evasion of these obligations will be decisively rebuffed."

Up to Democratic Convention.
"With one thing I am fully satisfied—that is that the Republican party in its platform has joined me in the suggestion I made in my letter to the guests at the Jackson day dinner in Washington in January last. In that letter I expressed the hope that a sincere attempt would be made to determine the attitude of the American people on the league of nations by the resort to the genuinely democratic process of the referendum."

"Of course I have no way of anticipating the probable trend of sentiment that will be expressed in the Democratic national convention at San Francisco or forecasting the ultimate conclusions of that body. But I have every confidence that the delegates who will sit in that convention will repeat the challenge I issued to the Republican party and express their readiness to permit the people to decide between the vague and ambiguous declaration by the Republicans and a positive and definite expression of opinion by the Democratic party."

"Whatever else the Democratic party may do I hope that its convention at San Francisco will say just what it means on every issue and that it will not resort either to ambiguity or evasions in doing so. This thing (the league of nations) lies too deep to permit of any political sculduggery, any attempt to sidestep or evade moral and humanitarian responsibility, much too solemn to treat so lightly or ignore. I sincerely believe, however, that the vast majority of gentlemen who will sit in the San Francisco convention will appreciate the necessity and permanent value of keeping the word that America has given to the rest of the world."

The president also criticizes congress, accusing it of evading responsibility. "The Lever food control act," he said, "has proved to be one of the most effective agencies in preventing depredations at the expense of the people than almost any other measure now in operation. Time for repealing it is not yet. The senate has for 11 months had it in its hand to end conditions that are unmistakably irksome to a great many of our citizens, because with the ratification of the peace treaty the operation of the laws that were enacted to safeguard the interests of the country in the war would automatically cease."

RAILROAD UNIONS TAKE REINS OF LABOR BODY

Rail Workers Assume Dominant Role In American Federation of Labor As Result Of Successful Fight.

Montreal, Que., June 18.—The railroad unions have assumed the dominant role in the American Federation of Labor as a result of their successful fight to have the convention endorse government ownership of railroads. Officials of the railroad unions claim that they have now assumed leadership of the American labor movement.

The railroad men are in the saddle today," declared S. H. Heberling, president of the switchmen's union of North America.

"The convention's action in endorsing government ownership with democratic control means that the policies of the federation of labor will be progressive from now on. We officials do not care who they elect as officials of the federation so long as we can dictate the policies. For the first time the federation has adopted a big constructive forward looking program. You might call it a revolution in the trade union movement, but may be evolution describes it better."

There was a division of opinion today as to whether Samuel Gompers would retire as president of the federation because his leadership was repudiated by the convention. Many labor men close to Gompers expressed the belief that the veteran leader would not quit but continue to combat the extremists in the organization. It is evident that Gompers feels his defeat keenly.

For years he had led in person the fight against any proposal for government ownership and he openly denounced the Plumb plan of government ownership of railroads. Much comment is heard over the possibility of a clash between President Warren Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Gompers for leadership of American labor in the future. Although an "outsider" Stone's influence has been strongly felt in the convention. Stone heads the Plumb plan league and it was he who induced the railroad unions to adopt the Plumb plan in their demands.

The election of officers was on the schedule of business today. The railroad unions planned to elect two representatives to the executive committee. W. H. Johnson of the Machinists and G. A. Franklin of the boiler makers pledged their support to J. P. Noonan of the electrical workers who opposed Daniel J. Tobin of the teamsters as treasurer of the federation.

Denver has entered in contest with Los Angeles and Birmingham Ala., for the next convention.

MYSTERY DEEPENS IN CASE OF N. Y. MURDER POLICE GET CLEWS

Little Progress Being Made
In Shooting Of J. B.
Elwell.

New York, June 18.—New developments today have deepened the mystery surrounding the murder of Joseph B. Elwell, bridge whist boss, brummel and owner of race horses. Loose ends of the case have been cleared up but the authorities admitted they have made little progress toward a solution of the case or apprehension of the slayer.

District Attorney Swann planned today to question four persons, among them the slain man's chauffeur, Edwin Rhodes; his housekeeper, Marie Larsen and a negro, Frank Jeffries, who is said to have been valet to Jack de Saules, killed three years ago by his wife. De Saules and Elwell it is now declared were close friends.

Final accounting of Elwell's estate, it is said may show that his fortune of 500,000 has disappeared and that at the time of his death he was virtually a pauper.

The police are now positive that a woman guest was in Elwell's home shortly before he was shot but admit they have no information that would fasten the slaying upon her.

District Attorney Swann has directed that for the third time two young society women the husband of one of them and a young man friend he subjected to searching questionings. One of these women, Swann, believes will eventually prove the key to the mystery by tracing Elwell's movements to within two or three hours of the time he was shot.

Victor A. Von Schlegel and his divorced wife, Viola Kraus, have again been questioned. Both were members of the party at the Ritz Carlton which Elwell attended the night before his death. Miss Kraus is said to have admitted visiting Elwell twice in his home. The police have seized a revolver found in Von Schlegel's home but have not connected the weapon in any way with the slaying of Elwell. The statement of a taxicab driver late yesterday that he drove a man and a woman to Elwell's home early in the morning of the murder and heard a woman's scream come from inside the house, is discounted by authorities.

STATE POLICE ARE
ADVOCATED BY CLUB

Zanesville, O., June 18.—The Ohio State Automobile association, in convention here, approved the creation of a state police force in Ohio, advocated a greater attention to maintenance of state roads in the interest of the user and taxpayer rather than merely for the benefit of road material and other interests seeking exploitation for profit, and resolved to seek greater uniformity among city traffic codes.

New officers elected were: President, F. F. Bentley, Warren; secretary, Charles C. Jones, Columbus; treasurer, Jacob L. Will, Columbus; trustees, Walter D. Meals and Fred H. Caley of Cleveland and P. F. Knowlton of Ashtabula. Next year's convention will be held in Youngstown.

Soviet Successes Reported.
London, June 18.—Russian Bolshevik forces have again advanced on the northern end of the Polish front, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow. Soviet successes on other sections of the line are also reported. Dispatches from Warsaw state Poland is ready to enter into peace negotiations with Russia.

Detroit, June 18.—Herbert Hoover, defeated candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, will receive the support of the entire Michigan delegation on the first ballot at the national Democratic convention, leaders declared here.

M'ADOO'S FRIENDS SCOUT RUMOR OF HIS WITHDRAWAL

Doubt Report That Former Treasury Head Sent Request.

COX NOT TO ATTEND Western States May Take Concerted Action In Meeting.

San Francisco, Cal., June 18.—Friends of William G. McAdoo today seriously doubted the authenticity of a report circulated here that the former head of the United States Treasury had sent a verbal request to Western delegates not to vote for him.

"While Mr. McAdoo has made plain time and again that he is no a candidate for the Presidential nomination, I doubt much the authenticity of this report," declared Mrs. Antonette Funk of Chicago, one of the most active workers here in behalf of the McAdoo boom.

McAdoo has announced his intention of remaining away from the convention. Governor Cox, of Ohio, will also remain at home, his manager E. H. Moore, announced today.

According to Moore, Governor Cox would consider his presence here "undignified."

PALMER TO ATTEND
The announcement that Attorney General Palmer will come to San Francisco, however, insures the presence of most of the presidential candidates. Governor Edwards of New Jersey, will arrive early next week. Senator Owen is already here. Secretary of Agriculture Meredith is expected next week and Senators Hitchcock and Simmons are expected to arrive before the convention opens.

The announcement yesterday that the western states have been asked to form an organization to provide for concerted action in the convention took on new significance today with the arrival here of Senator James D. Phelan and the announcement that he will fight for the inclusion in the Democratic platform of planks providing for the exclusion of Asiatics and to prevent foreigners from acquiring oil lands in the United States.

STRIKE DISORDERS DEVASTATE NORTH ITALY, REPORT

London, June 18.—Strike disorders and fighting between the "whites" and "reds" are devastating part of northern Italy, according to the following Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Rome today:

"The situation in the agricultural district of the province of Cremona baffles description. The whites are driving out the reds. Deputy Moglioli and his supporters are scouring the country preaching wheat is rotting in the fields. All hope of settling the strike seems to have been abandoned."

ITALY AND SPAIN WILL RECOGNIZE NEW GOVERNMENT

Mexico City, June 18.—Reports were current in semi-official circles today that Italy and Spain have formally recognized the new government headed by Provisional President De La Huerta and that similar action probably will be taken by Great Britain and Japan soon. China was the first power to recognize the Huerta regime.

ALLIES CONSIDER PEACE RELATIONS WITH TURKEY

London, June 18.—The allies are considering the advisability of coming to terms with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, leader of the Turkish nationalists, and then drafting a new Turkish treaty, the Evening Standard stated today. The Turkish treaty is the only one remaining to be signed.

VIGOROUS CRUSADE AGAINST PLAGUE SHOWS RESULTS

Vera Cruz, June 18.—The vigorous crusade began by Dr. Carl Mitchell, American medical expert, against the bubonic plague is already showing good results. Only one death was reported on Thursday and no new cases. Dr. Mitchell has organized a new sanitary squad and 250,000 pesos have been raised to equip it.

FIFTEEN SOLDIERS KILLED IN BATTLE WITH THE TURKS

London, June 18.—Fifteen British soldiers have been killed and 23 wounded in battle with the Turkish nationalists at Ismid, said a news agency dispatch from Constantinople today. The Turks attacked a detachment of British Indian troops which were withdrawing. Under cover of a bombardment from six inch artillery Gordon Highlanders succeeded in rescuing the remaining members of the Indian troops.

HARDING NOT CONCERNED OVER PACT REFERENDUM

Presidential Nominee Interested in Development Of Friendly Relations With Latin America
Declares John Barrett.

Washington, June 18.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee, is not gravely concerned over the result of a referendum on the league of nations covenant so frequently advocated by President Wilson and again urged in a statement from the president published this morning.

When asked for an opinion on the interview given out by President Wilson, Senator Harding said: "I am sure the Republican party will gladly welcome a referendum on a question of the foreign relations of this republic and that the Republican attitude of preserving our nationality will be overwhelmingly endorsed."

Herbert C. Hoover breakfasted with Senator Harding this morning at the Senator's home in Wyoming Avenue. "The conference between Mr. Hoover and myself, covered a wide latitude and was most satisfactory," was the senator's only comment.

None other than Mr. Hoover, except the senator's immediate family, was present at the breakfast.

John Barrett, former director of the Pan-American union, conferred with Senator Harding today on Latin-American matters.

"Senator Harding has long been interested in the development of friendly relations with Latin America," said Barrett, "and it was this question that we discussed. The conference was very satisfactory."

Senator Harding intends to hold intact for work in the general campaign the Harding pre-convention organization.

He feels that this is due to the friends who, without money and in the face of many discouragements, brought to him the convention delegates and held them loyally through the strain of ten ballots until success came to him.

The Republican national committee will be an important cog of the campaign machinery. It will not, however, be all the machinery. The Harding organization will be the

GERMAN INDEMNITY AND RUSS TRADING WILL BE CONSIDERED

Conference Of Allied Statesmen To Open at Boulogne.

London, June 18.—German indemnity and commercial trading with Russia will be the two big questions discussed by the conference of allied statesmen at Boulogne next week, it was learned today. It is believed that an agreement already has been reached between premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand, of France, which will serve as a basis for discussions.

The Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Paris reports that the following statesmen will be present: Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain; Premier Millerand, of France; Count Sforza, foreign minister of Italy; Paul Hymans, of Belgium, and Dr. Matsui, of Japan.

The conference is scheduled to open on Monday and probably will last two days.

MINER APPEAL FOR AID IN FINANCES

Columbus, June 18.—G. W. Savage, secretary-treasurer of the Ohio mine workers, is in receipt of an appeal for aid from miners living at Byesville, a little mining town in the eastern part of Guernsey county. The miners report that they and their families are hungry, owing to the fact that they are unable to make enough money to pay high prices charged for food. Reports reaching Mr. Savage are that miners elsewhere in the state also are suffering, but this is the first instance of an appeal for help. According to Mr. Savage some of the miners of Ohio are working only one day a week. Others, however, are working six days. The latter are employed at mines which furnish the railroads coal and the roads, the miners' officials say, take care of these mines and discriminate against other mines.

GEORGE PERKINS FINANCIER, DIES IN EAST FRIDAY

Former Partner Of J. P.
Morgan and Noted
Business Man Dead.

IS MULTI-MILLIONAIRE Was One Of Founders Of Founders of Progressive Party in 1912.

Stamford, Conn., June 18.—Geo. W. Perkins, former partner of J. P. Morgan and Company, and one of the founders of the progressive party died today in Stamford Hall Sanitarium. He suffered a nervous breakdown some time ago and was brought here for treatment from his home in New York City.

Mr. Perkins' failing health dated back to an attack of influenza and pneumonia he suffered while in France doing Y. M. C. A. work. His son George W. Perkins Jr., said his father had never fully recovered from the double attack.

The first of Major Mr. Perkins was moved to a quiet retreat in the Catskill mountains but the nervous ailment failed to respond to treatment and on June 5 he was brought to Stamford.

About this time reports became current that the financier was suffering acutely and was in a violent condition at times. This was denied by the son.

Mr. Perkins was reputed to be a multimillionaire. He was heavily interested in International Harvester Company and had many other business connections. He began his business in New York maintained a home at Riverdale on the Hudson river.

George Walbridge Perkins was born in Chicago on January 31, 1862. He received only a common school education and long before he reached his majority had started out to fight his way up in the business world. He secured a minor position in the Chicago office of the New Life Insurance Company and rose to be first vice president and chairman of the finance committee. He had achieved such success in financial affairs that he attracted the attention of J. P. Morgan and in 1903 was made a member of the Morgan banking firm.

Perkins was a great admirer of the late Theodore Roosevelt, and in 1912 when the Republican party split the financier became one of the chief backers of Colonel Roosevelt on the Progressive ticket.

TO MAKE CHICAGO U. S. WOOL CENTER IS PLAN OF GROWERS

Plan Made To Finance
Wool Clip Movement

Chicago, June 18.—Steps to make Chicago the wool center of America were taken here at a conference of wool growers and bankers, with decision to name a committee to place the question before officials at Washington. The committee will be appointed by William J. Williams, president of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association.

Under the proposition approved by the meeting, called by representatives of the American Wool Growers' association, the movement of the wool clip, beginning in 1920, would be financed by Chicago bankers, which would require $100,000,000 annually. Heretofore this has been done by Boston banks, who have been compelled, it was said, to relinquish their financial support, due to demands for funds from other sources. It was announced that the plan was favorably received by Chicago financiers.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO PLACE TICKET

Chicago, June 18.—The Prohibition party, disappointed at the alleged rebuff given its representatives at the Republican convention, are planning a presidential ticket, Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman of the Prohibition national committee, declared here. Little hope is held that the Democrats will put up a 100 per cent prohibition ticket, Hinshaw said. "We want something more than a candidate," he said. "We want a dry candidate and a dry platform." Republican leaders, he charged, "ducked the issue." Senator Harding will not be accepted by the Prohibitionists, said Hinshaw. A statement explaining their refusal to support Harding probably will be made within a few days, he added.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS COMB DISTRICT FOR CANADIAN RUNNERS

Suspect College Man Held For Murder Was Rum Agent.

Hanover, N. H., June 18.—Federal officials today are combing the district between here and the Canadian border for suspected "rum runners" who are alleged to have supplied Dartmouth college students with liquor. The authorities believe that the slaying of Henry E. Haroney, a senior, by Robert T. Meads, of La Grange, Ill., was an outgrowth of an organized, illicit traffic in liquor. Meads, it is believed, was an agent of the "rum runners."

Albert H. Meads, Chicago attorney, father of Robert T. Meads, arrived today. He visited his son at the Woodville jail.

"I will stand by my boy to the end," he said.

The authorities say they have found a cache at the college grounds where Meads had stored nearly a hundred quarts of whisky which he brought into the college for sale in his automobile. Working back from the scene of the tragedy the federal officers claim to have located the trail of the "rum runners" from the Canadian border.

Orle Wise of Akron, O., the freshman who aided in the temporary escape of Meads, is still in the care of Sheriff Murray, awaiting the arrival of the $1,000 bail in which he is held as material witness.

Ingenious methods were used by the "rum runners" to get their whisky into the college, it is alleged. Custom guards were eluded, it is believed, by running across the border at night while on other occasions the smugglers deliberately fastened whisky bottles beneath their automobiles.

GREENVILLE VOTED
NEXT ENCAMPMENT
AT G. A. R. MEETING

Fifty Fourth Annual State Rally Come To End.

Dennison, O., June 18.—With the selection of Greenville as next year's encampment city, the date to be set later; the election of Dr. John Adams of Cincinnati as department commander, and the annual parade, the fifty-fourth annual state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic closed here.

The parade was marred by a heavy rainstorm, but despite this thousands of veterans of the civil, Spanish-American and the world wars marched before several thousand cheering spectators for a mile and a half. Six bands and a dozen drum corps furnished music.

One hundred and fifty automobiles carried veterans of the civil war who were unable to march, and their ladies.

Besides Dr. Adams, the Ohio encampment elected the following officers: Senior vice commander, J. W. Akers, Uhrichsville; junior vice commander, George H. Playford, Zanesville; department chaplain, Rev. C. H. Stocking, Cleveland. Commander Adams appointed W. S. Matthews of Columbus his adjutant.

Two Hundred Attend Alumni Banquet of Central High School on Thursday

More than two hundred people attended the annual reception banquet of the Central High School Alumni Association to the incoming class of this year's graduates held at the Second United Presbyterian Church Thursday evening.

The day was especially significant as it marked the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Alumni Association, first organized by the class of 1870, and since kept growing and active as each succeeding class of graduates is received into the association.

Graduates representing many different classes that have gone forth from Central High School were present at the annual reception and many informal class reunions were held. In the dining room in the church basement the sixty-three members of the class of 1920 were seated at one long table, and the tables of the diners were decorated with baskets of cut flowers.

Following the three-course banquet served Robert Bryson president of the Alumni Association delivered the address of welcome to the incoming class and Lawrence Riddell president of the class of 1920 responded. In view of the fact that the occasion was the fiftieth anniversary of the Association, Thomas G. Brown of Coshocton, member of the class that instituted the organization was invited to be present but was unable to do so and a message from him was read by Miss Mary Wilgus, former Central High School teacher.

ORMSBY SUPERINTENDENT

Prof. George S. Ormsby was superintendent of schools then and in the class of 1870, according to Mr. Brown's letter, there were 21 graduates, 18 of them being girls, and 3 boys. The commencement was held in the old city hall, forerunner of the present Opera House and city building and it was packed with relatives and friends for the occasion. So long were the exercises that they were extended over two evenings each graduate delivering either an essay or oration. Mr. Brown expressed his regret at being unable of the nominating committee, co-president of the Association.

Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, by Miss Nelle Wilson, secretary, the report of the nominating committees, consisting of James D. Adair, Miss Miriam Galloway, C. A. Bone, and Arthur Kany, was received and accepted unanimously. The new officers being J. Perry Shumaker, president, Curtis B. Geyer, vice president; Miss Eva Arnold, '20, secretary and Dr. Kent Finley, treasurer. The officers who have served during the past year were Robert Bryson, president; Miss Louise Shaffer, vice president; Miss Nelle Wilson, secretary and G. H. Stokes, treasurer.

GIVE VOTE OF THANKS

As the after-dinner meeting closed a vote of thanks was given Mrs. Robert Bryson, for her assistance in this year's affair, on the motion of Mrs. Winnifred Armstrong.

"The Retaining of the Shrew" a Shakespearian travesty, given by members of the Alumni Association in the auditorium of the McKinley school, immediately after the banquet was well given and much enjoyed by the audience.

The playlet introduced a modern version of Shakespeare with the modern woman, preaching a doctrine of suffrage and prohibition, while Othello, Macbeth and other characters found them selves very much under the thumbs of their wives until they turned the tables and regained their rights.

The characters were well chosen and ably presented the piece. Those taking part were C. A. Bone, Miss Edna Mitchell, Fred Flynn, Miss Julia McCormick, Karl Bloom, Miss Irene Yowler, William Anderson, Miss Emma Dymond and John Kierman. Preceding the playlet, Miss Hazel Flagg and Mrs. Fannie Moore were entertaining in the rendition of a piano duet, and a trio, consisting of Miss Flagg at the piano, Walter Currie, Clarinet and S. O. Hale, violin, was pleasing in two different selections.

The playlet was directed by Miss Jean B. Elwell of the High School faculty, and Miss Emma Davidson, while Miss Faye Cavanaugh was manager of the playlet. The program this year was a departure from the custom of after-dinner speeches but was well received by the alumni.

Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, by Miss Nelle Wilson, secretary, the report of the nominating committees, consisting of James D. Adair, Miss Miriam Galloway, C. A. Bone, and Arthur Kany, was received and accepted unanimously. The new officers being J. Perry Shumaker, president, Curtis B. More than two hundred people attended the annual banquet of the Central High School Alumni Association to the incoming class of this year's graduates held at the Second United Presbyterian Church Thursday evening. The day was especially significant as it marked the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Alumni Association, first organized by the class of 1870, and since kept growing and active as each succeeding class of graduates is received into the association. Graduates representing many different classes that have gone forth from Central High School were present at the annual reception and many informal class reunions were held. In the dining room in the church basement the sixty-three members of the class of 1920 were seated at one long table, and the tables of the diners were decorated with baskets of cut flowers. Following the three-course banquet served Robert Bryson president of the Alumni Association delivered the address of welcome to the incoming class and Lawrence Riddell president of the class of 1920 responded. In view of the fact that the occasion was the fiftieth anniversary of the Association, Thomas G. Brown of Coshocton, member of the class that instituted the organization was invited to be present but was unable to do so and a message from him was read by Miss Mary Willius, former Central High School teacher. ORMSBY SUPERINTENDENT Prof. George S. Ormsby was superintendent of schools then and in the class of 1870, according to Mr. Brown's letter, there were 21 graduates, 18 of them being girls, and 8 boys. The commencement was held in the old city hall, forerunner of the present Opera House and city building and it was packed with relatives and friends for the occasion. So long were the exercises that they were extended over two evenings each graduate delivering either an essay or oration. Mr. Brown expressed his regret at being unable of the nominating committee, co-president of the Association. Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, by Miss Nelle Wilson, secretary, the report of the nominating committees, consisting of James D. Adair, Miss Miriam Galloway, C. A. GIVE VOTE OF THANKS

As the after-dinner meeting closed a vote of thanks was given Mrs. Robert Bryson, for her assistance in this year's affair, on the motion of Mrs. Winnifred Armstrong.

"The Retaining of the Shrew" a Shakespearean travesty, given by members of the Alumni Association in the auditorium of the McKinley school, immediately after the banquet was well given and much enjoyed by the audience.

The playlet introduced a modern

Giovanni Giolitti.

Giovanni Giolitti, former premier of Italy, has been requested to form a new cabinet to succeed that of Francesco Nitti, which recently resigned. Giolitti was regarded as a pro-German during the war.

version of Shakespeare with the modern woman, preaching a doctrine of suffrage and prohibition, while Othello, Macbeth and other characters found them selves very much under the thumbs of their wives until they turned the tables and regained their rights.

The characters were well chosen and ably presented the piece. Those taking part were C. A. Bone, Miss Edna Mitchell, Fred Flynn, Miss Julia McCormick, Karl Bloom, Miss Irene Yowler, William Anderson, Miss Emma Lyndon and John Kierman. Preceding the playlet, Miss Hazel Flagg and Mrs. Fannie Moore were entertaining in the rendition of a piano duet, and a trio, consisting of Miss Flagg at the piano, Walter Currie, Clarinet and S. O. Hale, violin, was pleasing in two different selections.

The playlet was directed by Miss Jean B. Elwell of the High School faculty, and Miss Emma Davidson, while Miss Faye Cavanaugh was manager of the playlet. The program this year was a departure from the custom of after-dinner speeches but was well received by the alumni.

CHILD IS DEEDED AWAY BY MOTHER

New York, June 18.—The revelation of how a mother "deeded" away her little child was made in the supreme court today revolving around three and one half years old Constant L. Bernheim, the son of Constant L. Bernheim, a Chicago artist, and Miss Bernheim Bernheim. The parents were never married.

According to testimony in the case Miss Bernheim signed an agreement giving the custody of the child to Mrs. Katharine Bernheim of Chicago, the artist's mother. Two months ago Mrs. Bernheim was put out of the child through a habeas corpus proceeding in Chicago and now Mrs. Bernheim is attempting to establish her claim in the New York courts. Bernheim and Mrs. Bernheim are said to have admitted in writing they met in Holland in 1914 and began to live together as man and wife but they were never married "even by common law."

DINNER STORIES

Too late! The saddest words in all our tongue.
Disheveled and weary, the stout suburbanite sank gasping on a seat in the railway station and glared at the rear end of the train he had just missed.

To him came the pompous, fussy station master.

"Were you trying to catch that train, sir?" he asked.

The panting, would-be passenger eyed him balefully for a second before he hissed in reply:

"Oh, no! I merely wished to chase it out of the station!"

It was a big cotton manufacturing town in Lancashire, where a revival service had been held. At the close the minister called upon all those who wished to go to heaven to stand up. All rose to their feet with the exception of one young man.

"Don't you want to go to heaven, my friend?" asked the preacher.

"Oh, yes, I want to go, rest enough," the young fellow replied, "but not with this trip."

Little Jimmy went with his mother to visit an aunt in the country, and his mother was very worried as to how he would behave.

But to her surprise he was very angelic during the whole visit—always did as he was told and never misbehaved.

As soon as he got home, however, he was his natural self again.

"Oh, Jimmy," she said, "you were so good while you were away. Why do you start behaving badly now?"

"What's home for?" asked Jimmy in pained surprise.

"Daddy, who was Hamlet?"

Father—"Aren't you ashamed of such ignorance at your age? Bring me a Bible and I'll soon show you who he was."

MARRIAGE CELEBRATED AT HOME OF MINISTER.

The marriage of Miss Ina E. Kennedy to John Wesley Coates, was celebrated Thursday evening, the Rev. J. O. C. McCracken officiating at his residence on South Detroit street. The bride, who was attended by Miss Mary Dakin, was attractive in a frock of white georgette, while Miss Dakin wore black satin. Earl McCoy was the best man. Following the marriage the bridal pair went to their new home on Washington street Orient Hill, where a company of about two dozen friends had gathered to greet them. A refreshment course was served. Mrs. Coates taught the first grade at McKinley school during the last term. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kennedy of the Upper Bellbrook pike. Mr. Coates is a machinist and well known Xenia young man.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON GIVEN IN DAYTON

Luncheon, followed by bridge was enjoyed at the Old Barn Club Hills and Dales, Dayton, Thursday, by sixty guests of Mrs. James A. Chow. The luncheon tables were decorated in delphinium and coreopsis, in a yellow blue effect. Out of town guests were Mrs. Walter Morrison (Amelia Harbison) of Tucson, Ariz., Miss Trusk, of Chicago, Mrs. James E. Kelly's guest and Mrs. R. C. Leslie of Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hannan and daughter of Cleveland, have returned home after visiting relatives here. They were accompanied to Cleveland by Miss Katherine Ramsey who will visit there for several weeks.

'JUST ONE' AND IT'S ALWAYS DONE

"Just One" is the Name of the Only Laxative of Which Just One is Always the Right Dose.

Just one tablet of "Just One" is always a "just right" dose. The only laxative that never wears out, that gives the same result year in and year out, that your system does not become callous to and that never fails to have its dose increased. All other laxatives work well only until your system gets used to them. Then you must either get a different kind or increase the dose. With "Just One" you get an entirely different laxative at each dose, because each of the 20 similar looking tablets in each box is made of different laxative ingredients. Each is a tried and proved successful formula, each is thorough dependable and pleasant in action and each is different from the other 19. That's why they never wear out.

Quit pounding on one particular organ all the time. Use a laxative that works on the different organs each dose. Stir up your liver one time, your pancreas another, your lower bowel another, and so on, always changing. You'll get much better results and without harming your system as other single-formula laxatives harm it. Try this new, scientific way and you'll see why it is so much better.

Don't let the day pass without getting your box of "Just One." Any druggist anywhere can get "Just One" for you, or we will send it post-paid upon receipt of 25c per package. Perfrone Chemical Company, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.
Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that of two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and has been successful in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful, and where the patient was helpless. Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed Sayre & Hemphill to guarantee it in every instance.

"UNCLE JOE" IS STILL WEARING 'EM.

While addressing a banquet at Riverview Park, Chicago, "Uncle Joe" Cannon, veteran of the House removed his coat and disclosed the fact that he still wears suspenders. "Uncle Joe" told the gathering that often a toothpick or a matchstick had performed the services as well as a button on his waistband. It would not be a photograph of "Uncle Joe" without the characteristic cigar.

HARDING REPLIES TO GENERAL LEONARD WOOD'S TELEGRAM OF CONGRATULATION.

Senator Harding on Wednesday sent the following letter to Major General Leonard Wood in reply to the latter's telegram of congratulation:

"I do not know quite how to express by feelings in dictating an acknowledgement to one who was a contender for the distinction that came to me. Perhaps I shall express myself sufficiently if I say that, had the distinction come to you instead of me, I should have found great pleasure and satisfaction in conveying to you a cordial message of felicitation and good wishes.

"I know that we both are interested in the same great good to our common country, and I feel confident that you will be interested deeply in bringing about a restoration of a Republican administration in Washington and a return to the constitutional methods of government which were the concept of the founding fathers."

Mr. Harding said he had heard from all of the other presidential aspirants at the Chicago convention excepting Senator La Follette. Mr. Harding explained Mr. La Follette is still in the hospital at Rochester, Minn., recuperating from an operation.

Governor Lowden, Mr. Harding said, was with him at the time he received his nomination, and was the first man to congratulate him.

"I came to know Frank Lowden in this campaign and I really learned to love him," Mr. Harding said. "I would go across town to hear him laugh. He has a very wholesome laugh."

Mr. Harding said he would not resign from the Senate prior to the expiration of his term on March 4 of next year. His friends explained later his purpose in remaining in the Senate is to prevent the appointment of a Democrat by Governor Cox, of Ohio, to take his place.

The decision of Mr. Harding to retain his seat in the Senate insures a Republican majority unless something unforeseen happens before March 4. The control of the Senate after that date depends on the outcome of the elections in thirty-two states in which Senators will be chosen this fall.

EX-PRESIDENT TAFT BELIEVES REPUBLICAN PARTY BOUND TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

By William Howard Taft:—The Republican platform and the assured Republican victory mean that the United States will enter the League with the Lodge reservations.

It would have been better to have been more specific and outspoken in the Republican platform as to the League of Nations. It would have been better to have pledged the party in terms to the League with the Lodge reservations for reasons already stated. That would have aided instead of injuring the assured prospect of Republican victory, and it would have removed the issue largely from the campaign between the two great parties. But fear of a bolt by Senators Johnson and Borah brought a compromise, in which the merely verbal concession was made to the bitter-enders of not using the word "League" or "Reservations" in the plank describing the international association the party pledges itself to bring about, although nothing but an approval and promise of the League with Lodge reservations can be inferred from the resolutions.

Good judges were of opinion that the more direct course would have been adopted by a majority of the committee had not Mr. Mills, drawn from his pocket the draft of a plank prepared by Mr. Root, which he said accomplished the same purpose. Their opponents found therein no express approval of the League and reservations in terms, and accepted it. Mr. Root is in favor of the League with the Lodge reservation and such improvement in the judicial features of the League as is indicated in the plank adopted.

The practical and consistent friends of the League of Nations may look forward to the coming Republican victory with confidence in the success of their cause.

A FACT FOR WOMEN TO REMEMBER.

One of the points embodied in the Republican national platform cannot too often or too emphatically be brought to the attention of women who are inclined to blame the Republican party for the long delay, not yet ended, in completing the ratification of the equal suffrage amendment to the United States constitution. It is the fact that twenty-nine out of the thirty-five state legislatures which have ratified the amendment were controlled by Republican majorities. Only six were dominated by the Democratic party.

In the face of that record it is grossly unjust for women who are eager for suffrage rights, throughout the country, to say that the Republican party has denied them fair play at the polls. The Republican party has been the one great power that has brought them to the very edge of entire political equality with men, in all parts of the United States. To it, far more than to any other organization or force, they owe their progress almost to the goal they have sought for many years.

THE BATTLE CRY OF THE HOSTS OF DEMOCRACY

DR. HYSLOP WAS NATIVE OF XENIA

Dr. Hyslop was born and received his early education in Xenia, being a graduate of Xenia High School. He is a nephew of Mrs. J. D. Carruthers of this city and has a number of nieces and nephews in this neighborhood.

On completion of his schooling here Dr. Hyslop studied at Geneva College and then graduated at Wooster. Later he spent two years at Heidelberg in Germany, where he met Miss Mary Hall a music student whom he married and who died in 1901. After returning to this country he was professor of philosophy at Lake Forest College, Chicago Smith College, Mass., Bucknell University and Columbia University, leaving the latter school to take up his duties as head of the American Society for the Psychical Research.

Dr. Hyslop was a son of Robert and Martha Bogle Hyslop of this city. W. W. Hyslop, of Springfield is a brother and he also has two other brothers, George L. of Deshler, Ohio and Frank of Camden, N. J. and a sister Miss Henrietta, who made her home with her brother. Surviving him also are two daughters, Misses Willifred and Beatrice and a son George. The children of E. T. McClellan are nephews and nieces of Dr. Hyslop.

Burial will be made beside the grave of his wife in Philadelphia, and his brother W. W. Hyslop of Springfield has left to attend the services. When a young man Dr. Hyslop became a member of the Associate Presbyterian church.

SON OF WEALTH IN PRISON ON A CHARGE OF STEALING AUTO

Chicago, June 18.—Lynn C. Borden, a 21 year old youth who claims to be the son of D. S. Borden, president of the Baldwin and White Consolidated company of Charleston, W. Va., today languished in a police station cell here while he and his pretty bride of a few months, the daughter of James K. Paisley, one of the wealthiest citizens of Ottawa, Canada, kept the telegraph wires hot in an effort to obtain the aid of the parents in freeing the youth from a variety of charges against him.

Young Borden, according to a story he told the police, worked until recently for an electrical supply company of New York. He married 21 year old Marjorie Paisley after meeting her at the Biltmore Hotel in New York. But on their honeymoon, he "went broke" in Toronto and not having sufficient funds to keep up their "style of living" appropriated an automobile in Rochester, N. Y., sold the machine in Detroit and finally was arrested here while occupying a $12 per day suite with his bride in a local hotel.

"Everything will come out all right," the honeymooners waived today. "Our papas will help us."

AUTO BANDITS GET $15,000 FROM BANK

Cleveland, O., June 18.—With drawn revolvers, five bandits today held up the employees of the First National Bank of Chagrin Falls, about 18 miles from here and escaped with loot estimated at $15,000. A. E. Chance, a 70 year old farmer, who refused to "get off the sidewalk" as the bandits entered the bank was shot in the leg. A small boy who was also slow to obey the bandits' command was struck over the head with the butt of a revolver.

ALL ALIKE.

The times are punk, the prospects yellow, conditions are a shame; and each man roasts the other fellow and says he is to blame. I throw some dormicks at my neighbor because he talks all day; he sidesteps hard, productive labor, puts up no helpful hay. But when I say he is a traitor to useful industry, he says he knows one who is greater, and shies a brick at me. While I sit writing up this drab age, my neighbor wots and weens, the country's pressing need is cabbage, and turnips and string beans. If I'd get land, and grow upon it a crop of seedles prunes, 'twould help out more than any sonnet, than any rippling tunes. Then he resumes his elocution, hands out the air that's hot, and says we'll have a revolution before we know what's what. Our lives would soon be rich and mellow, the times be smooth as wax, if we could make the other fellow get down to Old Brass Tacks. But ben we urge him to get busy, and go and earn the price, he says, with nerve that makes us dizzy, "Just take your own advice."

G. O. P. NOMINEE FINDS SECLUSION FROM CHEERING CROWDS IN PRETTY WASHINGTON HOME.

Arriving in Washington at midnight of the day following his election as the Republican Presidential nominee, Senator Warren G. Harding was greeted at the train by a cheering crowd and passed long enough to have a couple of flashlight photographs taken. The Senator and Mrs. Harding were glad to escape from the well-meaning crowd and find seclusion in their pretty Washington home. The home is situated at No. 2314 Wyoming avenue in the secluded residential district of the capital.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please recommend some good tooth powder?
H. J.
Precipitated chalk, seven drams; powdered camphor, one-half dram; powdered orris root, one dram.
Mix by sifting several times through coarse muslin.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I want to have my girl come to our house to dinner. Should I invite her or should my mother? ROBERT.
It would be better for your mother to invite her.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What do you think a young girl should do when a boy winks at her?
What kind and color would you suggest for a graduation dress? BEAUTY.

She should not show that she noticed the wink.
A simple white wash dress would be the most appropriate for graduation.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a woman of thirty years. My husband is ten years older than myself and has two children. One of them is married—the daughter whom I raised. Now the boy has come to stay with us. He has been here four years and my husband hasn't been real good to me since he came.

When he is not here my husband is good to me and when he is he treats me coldly. I don't want to complain, but my step-son is breaking up our love. He has knocked me down and I have had blue marks on my arms for weeks when he has hit and beat me.

He buys things on time and charges them to me. When I tell his father he just says that I am as much to blame as his son. What am I to do? I cannot live this way. I have told the father and son and they don't care.

I keep the table and buy my own clothing. I have several hogs and two cows and my husband never gives me any of the money from them. I don't want all of it, but some. He says that the boy has to have clothes.

I am not strong and cannot stand much. They both treat me mean. My husband never buys a thing for the house or to eat and I have to buy it with the money from the milk and a few chickens.

I think the world of my husband and could not bear the thought of giving him up. He doesn't want me to have a thing to do with my folks and I love my people dearly.

Please advise me.

MRS. M. O. V.
It is better to do effective acting than to complain. To tell your husband that you must have money does no good. To serve only such things as you raise and never buy meat, flour or delicacies would bring about results. Your husband would want them and in order to have them would give you money.

To go without bread because there is no flour would make almost any man furnish money to buy flour. The little money you are able to earn you should spend on clothes for yourself. If you look out for yourself first your husband and his son will have more respect for you. You cannot possibly keep the respect of your husband and the boy unless you dress respectably. Don't ask if you can buy certain things. Simply do it and don't say anything about it afterward.

Do not pay for things the boy buys and has charged to you. The father can be forced to pay, but not you.

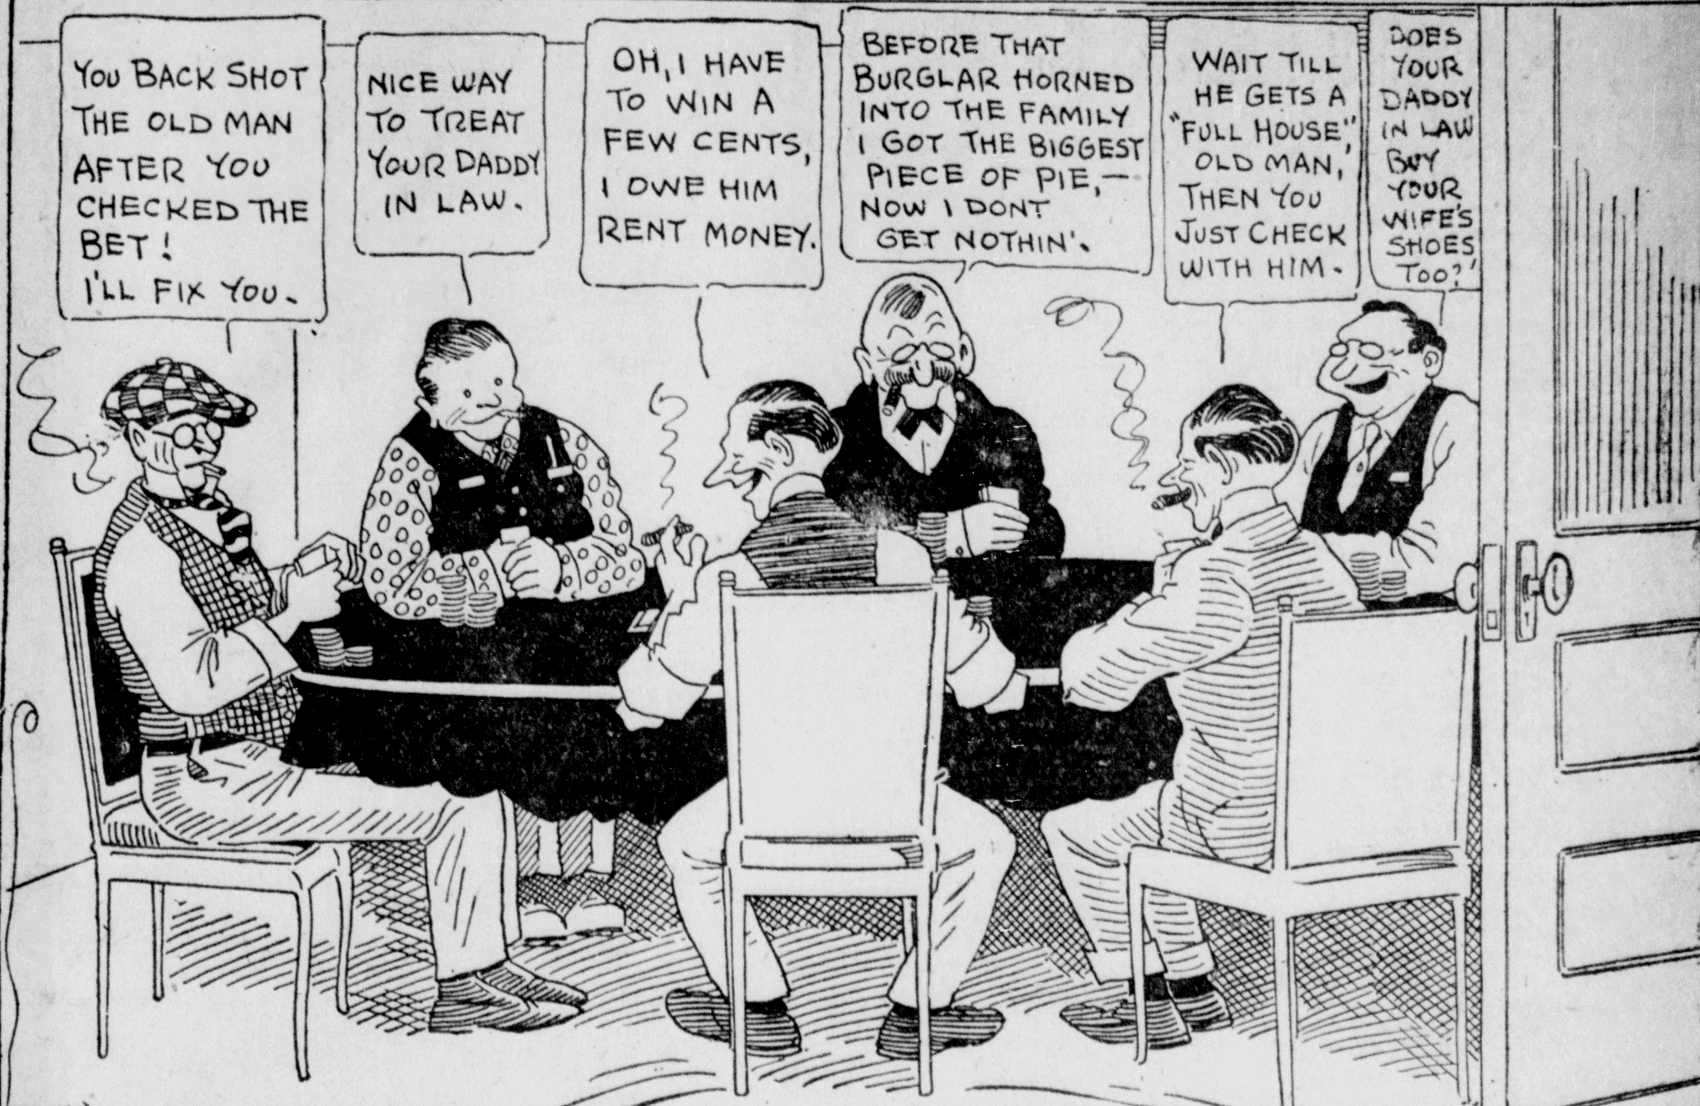

It is a great mistake to give up your own people because your husband wants it. When you married you did not promise to become a slave. Marriage should not break your will. Show your husband that you can be as big a tyrant as he is if necessary.

WASHING THE FACE

Many women will consider it a waste of time to read directions about so simple a matter as washing the face. But—

Do you know that there is a right and a wrong way of washing the face, and that a surprising number of women follow the wrong method? And do you know that the pulling and twisting of the face in the wrong method is really harmful—that is, it tends to pull down the muscles and deepens the wrinkles? It takes no longer to do it wrong—and it's quite as easy.

First of all—lift the muscles as you wash the face. That is, wash with all motions going upwards instead of downwards. Use very warm water and a mild soap, and always rinse in water as warm as the first you used; more time than the slipshod method. Some women soap the washcloth full of—well, any old sort of soap, then lather over the skin, scrubbing about and pulling and jerking at the face any old way. The natural tendency is to bear hard on the downward stroke—watch yourself when you wash the face and you will see what I mean. This pressure comes particularly around the mouth, whose corners are pulled downwards.

Now all motions should be up—to raise the muscles that will sag downwards soon enough after you have passed 30 years. There is no reason why face washing should not be a beauty treatment as well as a cleansing one, you know. The washing should clean and stimulate the complexion, should bring new blood to the

Dependable rope for hay-harvest time

Guaranteed rope for haying time—rope that you can depend upon to carry the overloads—that's what we are offering to the farmers of this section in Hooven & Allison "Blue Heart" manila rope.

"Blue Heart" is so spun that its makers are definitely able to guarantee it to be stronger than the United States Government Bureau of Standards considers ideal.

Only tough, pure manila fibre can be made into cordage of such strength. And yet "Blue Heart" costs no more than ordinary rope.

Kinks less—easy on hands—resists water

"Blue Heart" manila will wear twice as long as low-grade rope. The quality of the fibre gives it not only great strength but also high wear-resisting ability.

Water has less effect on it than on ordinary rope. Easy bending and pliable, knots easily, easy on the hands, ideal for hitch and tie purposes.

Throw out your worn ropes now—get ready for the coming season by ordering a supply of "Blue Heart" manila. Identify it by the blue trade-mark in the center of the strands.

OLD SKATING RINK SOLD; TO BE USED FOR AUTO STORAGE

Through a deal completed Thursday by the real estate firm of Long & Marshall, the old skating rink on East Third street, a landmark in Xenia, has been sold by Martin H. Schmidt, the owner for years, to Howard T. Confer, of this city, and his son, Harold Confer, who has just arrived here from New Jersey.

As soon as the building can be remodelled to suit the plans of the new owners it will be opened as an auto storage station, accommodating cars for storage, and handling accessories only. Work on the reconstruction of the structure is expected to start as soon as the Soldiers and Sailors June Festival, to be held in the building June 28 to July 3, is over.

The skating rink, often known as the armory, has been Xenia's handy building for years. Any event of importance that has been too large to hold in any other building, has been staged at the Rink, and it has seen the basketball games, both high school and independent teams, for many years. Built years ago it was originally designed and used for a skating rink and when the skating craze died out, it was used for many other and varied purposes. For a long time it was the armory for Company 1, the Xenia company of Ohio National Guards, and drill target practice was held there.

It was revived by a skating rink a year ago last winter by H. D. Ruhlman who has occurred it for skating purposes for two winters. It has been the only basketball court available in the city for many years and has been used for that purpose by both high school and independent teams. The room is wide enough to accommodate a regulation size court with plenty of room for spectators. Many festivals and bazaars have also been staged there and recently a boxing show was held in the building. Cars ago huge balls were staged within its walls.

Its sale by Long and Marshall marks the passing of the building for any of these purposes, and it will soon hum with the activities of commercial life rather than that of amusements. Harold Confer, one of the purchasers, is a former Xenian, but for several years has been devoted to athletic work and has been director of athletics at a preparatory school in New Jersey recently. He will manage the storage station, and with Mrs. Confer, who came herewith him from New Jersey, will make it home in this city. The consideration was not mentioned in the deal.

PROF. HYSLOP FORMER XENIAN AND NOTED STUDENT, IS DEAD

Born In Xenia In 1854; Dies In New Jersey.

New York, June 18.—James Herve Hyslop, secretary and director of research of the American Society for Psychical Research, died yesterday after a long illness in Upper Montclair, N. J. Death was due to thrombosis.

Born in Xenia, O., Aug. 18, 1854, Dr. Hyslop was graduated from Wooster College, studied two years at the University of Leipzig and later at Johns Hopkins.

Suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis, he resigned from Columbia in 1902 and spent the next two years in the Adirondacks.

Having long been interested in psychic phenomena, Dr. Hyslop in 1907 raised an endowment fund of $175,000 for the re-establishment of the American Society of Psychical Research, which had dissolved following the death of its secretary. In a biographical sketch issued today by the society Dr. Hyslop is described as "formerly a materialist and agnostic," who became "convinced that demonstrative evidence of the continuance of human life after bodily death exists."

"I HAVE GAINED
SIX POUNDS BY
TAKING DRECO."

Lancaster citizen had indigestion, dyspepsia, gas in his stomach; bowels constipated; no appetite for finest meal.

Two bottles of Dreco corrected these troubles, and now he feels 100% better, he says.

"I tried to hate to sit down to the table, for even the best meal did not appeal to me. I didn't even want to look at food," declared Mr. C. C. Duckwall, a popular employee of Chaffin Engineering Co., Lancaster, O.

"What little food I did eat would disagree with me, giving me pains; turned to gas and made my stomach very uncomfortable. My bowels kept bound up all the time, so I had to take physics all the time. I often had headaches and my sleep was broken and failed to refresh me."

"Two bottles of Dreco have made me feel 100 per cent better in every way. I have gained six pounds in weight; bowels act regular; have a big appetite and my stomach is able to digest food without forming gas or swelling up. Dreco is truly a remedy of merit, and I gladly tell people what it has done."

After taking Dreco it is noticed the bowels act regular every day; the stomach digests the food without leaving gas; the lazy liver becomes active; kidneys are strengthened; the appetite grows, and sleep becomes sound and refreshing. Dreco is pleasant to take and effects are prompt.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced here by

Sohn's Drug Store.

The stirring climax shows the hero racing through the sky in pursuit of another plane which has kidnapped a girl he intends to rescue. He overtakes his foe, rises above him, leaps into space, and, dangling on a rope, attempts to board the enemy machine. But just as he nears the cockpit, there is an accident. The airplanes clash—lock together—plunge with their occupants 3000 feet to earth. And the camera man, in another plane, caught it all! A real accident, reported by the Associated Press. A breath-suspending thrill that will never be duplicated. Yet only one of the amazing scenes of dare-devil adventure in "The Grim Game." Come!

OLD SKATING RINK SOLD; TO BE USED FOR AUTO STORAGE

Through a deal completed Thursday by the real estate firm of Long & Marshall, the old skating rink on East Third street, a landmark in Xenia, has been sold by Martin H. Schmidt, the owner for years, to Howard T. Confer, of this city, and his son, Harold Confer, who has just arrived here from New Jersey.

As soon as the building can be remodelled to suit the plans of the new owners it will be opened as an auto storage station, accommodating cars for storage, and handling accessories only. Work on the reconstruction of the structure is expected to start as soon as the Soldiers and Sailors June Festival, to be held in the building June 28 to July 3, is over.

The skating rink, often known as the armory, has been Xenia's handy building for years. Any event of importance that has been too large to hold in any other building, has been staged at the rink, and it has seen the basketball games, both high school and independent for many years. Built years ago it was originally designed and used for a skating rink and when the skating craze died out, it was used for many other and varied purposes. For a long time it was the armory for Company 1, the Xenia company of Ohio National Guards, and drill target practice was held there.

It was revived by a skating rink a year ago last winter by H. D. Ruhlman who has occurred it for skating purposes for two winters. It has been the only basketball court available in the city for many years and has been used for that purpose by both high school and independent teams. The room is wide enough to accommodate a regulation size court with plenty of room for spectators. Many festivals and bazaar have also been staged there and recently a boxing show was held in the building. Cars ago huge balls were staged within its walls.

Its sale by Long and Marshall marks the passing of the building for any of these purposes, and it will soon hum with the activities of commercial life rather than that of amusements. Harold Confer, one of the purchasers, is a former Xenian, but for several years has been director of athletics at a preparatory school in New Jersey recently. He will manage the storage station, and with Mrs. Confer, who came herewith him from New Jersey, will make it home in this city. The consideration was not mentioned in the deal.

SILVER BOUGHT FOR MINT
Washington, June 18.—Purchase of 1,500,000 ounces of silver at $1 an ounce, under authority of the Pittman act, was announced by the Director of the Mint. The Pittman act provides for the purchase of silver mined and refined in the United States at not more than $1 an ounce.

Merchant Financial Wreck

"I am a financial wreck because of the expense of doctors and medicine for my wife. She has been a chronic sufferer for 10 years. Some pronounced it gall stones, some gastritis and some intestinal inflammation. I happened to read an ad of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and from the first dose my wife has steadily improved. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

PROF. HYSLOP FORMER XENIAN AND NOTED STUDENT, IS DEAD

Born In Xenia In 1854; Dies In New Jersey.

New York, June 18.—James Herve Hyslop, secretary and director of research of the American Society for Psychical Research, died yesterday after a long illness in Upper Montclair, N. J. Death was due to thrombosis.

Born in Xenia, O., Aug. 18, 1854, Dr. Hyslop was graduated from Wooster College, studied two years at the University of Leipzig and later at Johns Hopkins.

Suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis, he resigned from Columbia in 1902 and spent the next two years in the Adirondacks.

Having long been interested in psychic phenomena, Dr. Hyslop in 1907 raised an endowment fund of $175,000 for the re-establishment of the American Society of Psychical Research, which had dissolved following the death of its secretary. In a biographic sketch issued today by the society Dr. Hyslop is described as "formerly a materialist and agnostic," who became "convinced that demonstrative evidence of the continuance of human life after bodily death exists."

"I HAVE GAINED
SIX POUNDS BY
TAKING DRECO."

Lancaster citizen had indigestion, dyspepsia, gas in his stomach; bowels constipated; no appetite for finest meal.

Two bottles of Dreco corrected these troubles, and now he feels 100% better, he says.

"I tried to hate to sit down to the table, for even the best meal did not appeal to me. I didn't even want to look at food," declared Mr. C. C. Duckwall, a popular employee of Clavin Engineering Co., Lancaster, O.

"What little food I did eat would disagree with me, giving me pains; turned to gas and made my stomach very uncomfortable. My bowels kept bound up all the time, so I had to take physics all the time. I often had headaches and my sleep was broken and failed to refresh me."

"Two bottles of Dreco have made me feel 100 per cent better in every way. I have gained six pounds in weight; bowels act regular; have a big appetite and my stomach is able to digest food without forming gas or swelling up. Dreco is truly a remedy of merit, and I gladly tell people what it has done."

After taking Dreco it is noticed the bowels act regular every day; the stomach digests the food without leaving gas; the lazy liver becomes active; kidneys are strengthened; the appetite grows, and sleep becomes sound and refreshing. Dreco is pleasant to take and effects are prompt.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced here by

Sohn's Drug Store.

$1,000 REWARD

The above sum will be paid by Houdini to any person who can prove that the hair-raising airplane chase, collision and crash to earth as shown in "The Grim Game," did not actually occur. The stirring climax shows the hero racing through the sky in pursuit of another plane which has kidnapped a girl he intends to rescue. He overtakes his foe, rises above him, leaps into space, and, dangling on a rope, attempts to board the enemy machine. But just as he nears the cockpit, there is an accident. The airplanes clash—lock together—plunge with their occupants 3000 feet to earth. And the camera man, in another plane, caught it all! A real accident, reported by the Associated Press. A breath-taking thrill that will never be duplicated. Yet only one of the amazing scenes of dare-devil adventure in "The Grim Game." Come!

"TACK" LATIMER TO MANAGE RAILROAD TEAM IN CINCINNATI

Cliff Latimer, better known to the baseball fraternity as "Tack" Latimer, local Pennsylvania railroad detective, has been selected by officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, Cincinnati division, to manage the company baseball team which will soon be organized in Cincinnati.

The organization of a ball team is part of the plan of the company to give this division entry into the league being formed by the railroad throughout the eastern states, which has so far been meeting with success. The object is a season's series of ball games between Pennsylvania railroad teams located in Columbus, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Boston, Brooklyn, New York and Logansport, Indiana, for a grand prize to be offered.

The officials backing the plan to give the Cincinnati division representation in the railroad baseball league, will spare no money or effort to give this division good representation on the diamond. The division will be scoured for good players, who will be transferred to the athletic department, and given good salaries to play on the team. Other players of ability, will be offered places on the team if they take a position with the railroad, and they will be placed in positions at good salaries, so that they can play ball in the summer time, and still retain their connection with the road at steady employment when the season is not on. A meeting of officials will be held in Cincinnati soon to outline plans for the club, which will probably be located in Cincinnati.

GREAT CATCHER.

The selection of Cliff Latimer to manage the division ball club, after scanning over prospective leaders all over the division, is not only an honor to the local man, but also shows rare judgment on the part of the road officials. Mr. Latimer is remembered by all old time baseball fans as one of the best catchers who ever manned a mitt in the big leagues, and he has played league ball with the New York Giants, the Brooklyn Dodgers, the Pittsburgh Pirates and with the Louisville Colonels, the latter in the American Association.

It was while "Tack" was living at Loveland, Ohio, and playing with the Cincinnati Gymnasium Club, that he attracted the attention of scouts. He went from Cincinnati to Mobile, Ala., from there to Minneapolis and from Minneapolis to Louisville in the same league, where he played for five years under Manager Fred Clark. "Tack" has performed in big league baseball fifteen years, participating in more than 1,000 championship games. He was with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1902 when that team played the Boston Red Sox in the world series but he was unable to play in the big series because of a broken thumb. During his career he has caught the famous Amos Rusie, one of the greatest pitchers the game has ever known, and other great hurlers of the times. After getting out of the regular pastime himself he became a scout or big league clubs, and in this capacity he discovered Rube Waddell, famous moundsman, and was the first man to handle the Rube. He also brought to light Bobby Vail, another great pastime, and he also has credit for discovering "Red" Fabre Chicago White Sox pitcher, who participated in the world series last year.

DISCOVERS WADDELL

Rube Waddell was hurling for a ball team in a little town in Pennsylvania, when "Tack" ran across the find, and induced to come to New York for a tryout. He made good from the getway as baseball history will testify and was on of the biggest finds of the season. "Red" Faber, was hurling for a Catholic College in Dubuque, Iowa when the local man, scouting for material through the territory, ran across him. Faber made a good impression on the scout and his career was made as he at once went up to the big leagues.

While "Tack" has not played any baseball himself for the last ten or fifteen years, his early big league training in the national pastime, and his scouting experience, well fit him for the position of manager of the railroad club, and his friends around here are expecting him to put a real club in the field when the road organization gets under way. He will not sever his connection with the railroad police department but will probably only serve as road patrolman, when the ball season is closed.

Western Union Manager Dead.

Asbury Park, N. J., June 18.—Daniel Skelton, general manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, died suddenly at his summer home here of heart failure brought on by running to avoid a rain shower. He was 58 years old and began his career as a messenger boy.

BELIEVE STATE WILL AID COUNTY WITH ROAD BUILDING

Arrangements have been completed by the county commissioners with the State Highway Department by which it is expected, the state and county will unite in the improvement of 6.94 miles of the Cedarville and Jamestown pike.

After a conference with representatives of the Highway Department, the commissioners, succeeded in securing the state's consent to the use of water bound macadam, tar treated, in building the road, instead of the more expensive bituminous macadam, and also obtained a reduction in the estimate of the cost, from $220,600 to $145,000, roughly estimated.

The state has also agreed to bear 40 per cent of the cost of construction. The county's share of the cost under the plans now being considered will be $87,000, and the state's share, $58,000. Eight inch double course macadam will be used, instead of the 11 inch course upon which the state originally insisted. Commissioners R. E. Corry, R. D. Williamson and G. N. Perrill, believe that the 8 inch course will give as good service as an 11 inch course, and the cost of construction will be materially decreased through its use.

The refusal of the state to go 50-50 with the county in the road improvement contemplated this year, and other items insisted upon by the state, made it appear as though the county's road program for the year would not be carried out. The commissioners secured a conference with representatives of the state department, as a result of which concession have been made which will it be believed permit the improvement to be made. The original estimate submitted by the state, made the cost of improving the Cedarville and Jamestown pike with water bound macadam $220,600, of which the county's share would be $170,600 and the state's share, $49,000.

Will Be Dropped From Rolls.

Washington, June 18.—Federal employees who have reached the age of retirement, 70 years, although they have not given the minimum of 15 years' service required under the retirement law, must be dropped from the rolls, Attorney General Palmer ruled. Such employees, he said, can not draw retirement. The ruling was announced in a letter to Secretary of the Interior Payne.

SPIRITED SESSION OF BOARD MARKS COLLEGE ELECTION

A spirited session of the trustees board of Wilberforce University, marked the election of the Rev. John Gregg of Jacksonville, Fla., as president of the college to succeed W. S. Scarborough.

Although the board had taken action the previous day to declare the office of head of the university vacant, President Scarborough was made a candidate for reelection to the place by his friends and on the first ballot ran second; Gilbert Jones, dean of the University and son of Bishop J. H. Jones, President of the trustee board, who was also a candidate was third. Dr. Gregg was elected on the third ballot.

After the first ballot was taken an effort was made to adjourn the meeting until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, following commencement but many members of the board refused to leave the hall, and insisted that the board continue in session until a president was elected. President Jones then reopened meeting and the balloting continued.

Dr. Gregg who will succeed Dr. Scarborough as president is a minister of the A. M. E. church and now head of Edward Waters college at Jacksonville Fla. He is said to be a strong man in the office.

The Combined Normal and Industrial Board met Thursday but transacted no business because a quorum was not present.

Mrs. J. L. Marshall and Mrs. Jos. Cowden will entertain the ladies of the Reformed church at a thimble party at the home of Mrs. Marshall on the Springfield pike, Tuesday p. m. June 22nd. All are cordially invited to be present.

The Very Rev. Bernard P. O'Reilly S. M., former president of St. Mary's college, Dayton, will deliver the address at the commencement exercises of St. Bridget's high school, which are to be held Friday evening in the parochial school auditorium. Each of the four graduates will deliver brief orations, and a short program will be rendered by grade pupils. Miss Loretta Richards, who is the winner of a scholarship in Mr. St. Joseph-in-the-Ohio, will deliver the valedictory oration.

More than fifty couples enjoyed the "June Hop" given by a local committee at Kilkare Park Thursday evening. The University Jazz Quintette, on its first appearance here, was decidedly popular. The committee in charge consisted of Arthur C. Bales, Gene Bennow, Carl Schweibold and Walker Whittington.

Marion to Welcome Harding. Marion, O., June 18.—W. E. Halley of Columbus, representing Harry M. Daugherty, attended a meeting of the Marion Civic association, at which it was decided to convert the American Legion's Independence day celebration on July 5 into a tremendous home-coming celebration for Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential candidate.

"Tack" has performed in big league baseball fifteen years, participating in more than 1,000 championship games. He was with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1902 when that team played the Boston Red Sox in the world series but he was unable to play in the big series because of a broken thumb. During his career he has caught the famous Amos Rusie, one of the greatest pitchers the game has ever known, and other great hurlers of the times. After getting out of the regular pastime himself he became a scout or big league clubs, and in this capacity he discovered Rube Waddell, famous moundsman, and was the first man to handle the Rube. He also brought to light Bobby Vail, another great pastime, and he also has credit for discovering "Red" Fabre Chicago White Sox pitcher, who participated in the world series last year.

DISCOVERS WADDELL.
Rube Waddell was hurling for a ball team in a little town in Pennsylvania, when "Tack" ran across the find, and induced to come to New York for a tryout. He made good from the getaway as baseball history will testify and was on of the biggest finds of the season. "Red" Faber, was hurling for a Catholic College in Dubuque, Iowa when the local man, scouting for material through the territory, ran across him. Faber made a good impression on the scout and his career was made as he at once went up to the big leagues.

While "Tack" has not played any baseball himself for the last ten or fifteen years, his early big league training in the national pastime, and his scouting experience, well fit him for the position of manager of the railroad club, and his friends around here are expecting him to put a real club in the field when the road organization gets under way. He will not sever his connection with the railroad police department but will probably only serve as road patrolman, when the ball season is closed.

Western Union Manager Dead.

Asbury Park, N. J., June 18.—Daniel Skelton, general manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, died suddenly at his summer home here of heart failure brought on by running to avoid a rain shower. He was 58 years old and began his career as a messenger boy.

BELIEVE STATE WILL AID COUNTY WITH ROAD BUILDING

Arrangements have been completed by the county commissioners with the State Highway Department by which it is expected, the state and county will unite in the improvement of 6.94 miles of the Cedarville and Jamestown pike.

After a conference with representatives of the Highway Department, the commissioners, succeeded in securing the state's consent to the use of water bound macadam, tar treated, in building the road, instead of the more expensive bituminous macadam, and also obtained a reduction in the estimate of the cost, from $220,000 to $145,000, roughly estimated.

The state has also agreed to bear 40 per cent of the cost of construction. The county's share of the cost under the plans now being considered will be $57,000, and the state's share, $88,000. Eight inch double course macadam will be used, instead of the 11 inch course upon which the state originally insisted. Commissioners R. E. Corry, R. D. Williamson and G. N. Perrill, believe that the 8 inch course will give as good service as an 11 inch course, and the cost of construction will be materially decreased through its use.

The refusal of the state to go 50-50 with the county in the road improvement contemplated this year, and other items insisted upon by the state, made it appear as though the county's road program for the year would not be carried out. The commissioners secured a conference with representatives of the state department, as a result of which concession have been made which will it is believed permit the improvement to be made. The original estimate submitted by the state, made the cost of improving the Cedarville and Jamestown pike with water bound macadam $220,000, of which the county's share would be $170,000 and the state's share, $49,000.

Will Be Dropped From Rolls.

Washington, June 18.—Federal employees who have reached the age of retirement, 70 years, although they have not given the minimum of 15 years' service required under the retirement law, must be dropped from the rolls, Attorney General Palmer ruled. Such employees, he said, can not draw retirement. The ruling was announced in a letter to Secretary of the Interior Payne.

SPIRITED SESSION OF BOARD MARKS COLLEGE ELECTION

A spirited session of the trustees board of Wilberforce University, marked the election of the Rev. John Gregg of Jacksonville, Fla., as president of the college to succeed W. S. Scarborough.

Although the board had taken action the previous day to declare the office of head of the university vacant, President Scarborough was made a candidate for reelection to the place by his friends and on the first ballot ran second; Gilbert Jones, dean of the University and son of Bishop J. H. Jones, President of the trustee board, who was also a candidate was third. Dr. Gregg was elected on the third ballot.

After the first ballot was taken an effort was made to adjourn the meeting until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, following commencement but many members of the board refused to leave the hall, and insisted that the board continue in session until a president was elected. President Jones then reopened meeting and the balloting continued. Dr. Gregg who will succeed Dr. Scarborough as president is a minister of the A. M. E. church and now head of Edward Waters college at Jacksonville, Fla. He is said to be a strong man in the office.

The Combined Normal and Industrial Board met Thursday but transacted no business because a quorum was not present.

Mrs. J. L. Marshall and Mrs. Jos. Cowden will entertain the ladies of the Reformed church at a thimble party at the home of Mrs. Marshall on the Springfield pike, Tuesday p. m., June 22nd. All are cordially invited to be present.

The Very Rev. Bernard P. O'Reilly, S. M., former president of St. Mary's college, Dayton, will deliver the address at the commencement exercises of St. Brigid's high school, which are to be held Friday evening in the parochial school auditorium. Each of the four graduates will deliver brief orations, and a short program will be rendered by grade pupils. Miss Loretta Richards, who is the winner of a scholarship in Mr. St. Joseph in the Ohio, will deliver the valedictory oration.

Marion to Welcome Harding.

Marion, O., June 18.—W. E. Halley of Columbus, representing Harry M. Daugherty, attended a meeting of the Marion Civic association, at which it was decided to convert the American Legion's Independence day celebration on July 5 into a tremendous home-coming celebration for Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential candidate.

FORD OWNERS!

Get Advance Cork Insert Brake Lining

here for your Fords. Advance Cork Insert makes Fords work wonderfully smooth. Stops rattling and shaking—makes the brake quick-acting and surprisingly smooth. Requires only slight pressure on the pedals—makes Ford driving a real pleasure.

Advance Cork Insert is far the cheapest in the end. One set outwears three sets of ordinary lining—saves you the expense and inconvenience of relining brakes. Does away with jarring vibration and makes your Ford last much longer.

Ordinary linings get a slick surface from friction and oil. This slick surface has no griping power. The corks in Advance Cork Insert always grip smoothly, instantly—and have great wearing quality.

Advance Cork Insert comes complete with rivets, ready to install. We carry a complete stock of accessories—everything for the automobile. The best tires and tubes—oils and greases.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the musky mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

FINANCIAL RELIEF FOR CITIES IS SUBJECT OF C. OF C. FRIDAY

Uniform taxation and financial relief cities is the purpose of a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce taxation committee held at the auditorium of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce Friday, at which the taxation committee from Xenia Chamber was in attendance.

Local men who made the trip to Columbus are Secretary L. C. Tingley, of the Chamber of Commerce, City Manager Kenyon Riddle, Charles Agair and J. W. Prugh. They will go to Columbus in Mr. Tingley's automobile.

The taxation convention was the outgrowth of the recent convention of the Ohio Commercial Secretaries Association, an organization of secretaries of Chambers of Commerce in all the cities in Ohio. At that time it was agreed that some action should be taken to secure financial relief for cities, as efforts conducted along this line have been unfruitful. The Chamber of Commerce has taken an active interest in the proposition and is sponsoring the meeting at Columbus Friday. C. K. Hebble, former Xenian and secretary of the Cincinnati Chamber, addressing the letter of invitation to the local body.

Two suggestions have so far been offered and were up for discussion at the meeting Friday. They are a program of tax legislation that will give cities sufficient revenue and a constitutional amendment for home rule for cities on taxation to be submitted by petition at the election next fall.

Members of taxation committees of Chambers of Commerce from all over the state who will go to the convention were foot free and permitted to announce any opinion they wish on the subject, the object of the meeting being to try to work out taxation relief for the cities, and give them sufficient working capital to operate and progress.

"CAN'T RECOMMEND IT TOO HIGHLY"

Miller Was Forced By Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism To Give Up His Business.

"Nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac, and that's saying a good deal, for I have been trying for eight years to get relief," said Robert Miller, 419 Market street, Louisville, Ky. Mr. Miller, who was in the hardware business in Detroit for ten years, was forced to retire eight years ago on account of ill health, but is now feeling so well he is thinking of going back in business again.

"Yes, sir, for eight years before I began taking Tanlac I had suffered from rheumatism and stomach trouble," said Mr. Miller. "The rheumatism was principally in my legs and back, and was so bad I could hardly walk without a cane and if I stooped over the pain in my back was so severe it was all I could do to keep from crying out. My stomach was so badly upset nearly everything I ate hurt me, and could not eat any solid food at all. I usually enjoyed my evening meal more than any other, but most of the time I dared not eat anything at all at that time, for if I did I would suffer from it all night long. I had lost so much weight and was in such bad condition I was greatly worried over it. I am feeling better now than I have in years. My rheumatism is all gone, my stomach doesn't give me any more trouble, and can eat anything I want at any time of the day or night and never have a particle of trouble from it afterwards. I sleep well, have gained several pounds in weight, and as I am still taking Tanlac I am picking up and feeling better and better every day. After what Tanlac has done for me I don't think I can recommend it too highly."

will take him only four months. In case he likes the country, however, he may locate there indefinitely.
Mr. Kearney leaves tonight for Chicago and thence to Seattle where he will take the boat for Alaska. The location of the mine is so far that he anticipates the journey will take him a month to accomplish.

Mr. Miller, who was in the hardware business in Detroit for ten years, was forced to retire eight years ago on account of ill health, but is now feeling so well he is thinking of going back in business again.

"Yes, sir, for eight years before I began taking Tanlac I had suffered from rheumatism and stomach trouble," said Mr. Miller. "The rheumatism was principally in my legs and back, and was so bad I could hardly walk without a cane and if I stooped over the pain in my back was so severe it was all I could do to keep from crying out. My stomach was so badly upset nearly everything I ate hurt me, and could not eat any solid food at all. I usually enjoyed my evening meal more than any other, but most of the time I dared not eat anything at all at that time, for if I did I would suffer from it all night long. I had lost so much weight and was in such bad condition I was greatly worried over it. I am feeling better now than I have in years. My rheumatism is all gone, my stomach doesn't give me any more trouble, and can eat anything I want at any time of the day or night and never have a particle of trouble from it afterwards. I sleep well, have gained several pounds in weight, and as I am still taking Tanlac I am picking up and feeling better and better every day. After what Tanlac has done for me I don't think I can recommend it too highly."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, in Yellow Springs by A. Finley, Bowersville, N. K. Bowermeister, Fairfield, Paul P. Young, Osborn, C. J. Logsdon, New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

COUNTY FARMERS TO SHIP CARLOAD OF WOOL TO CONSUMERS

Greene county farmers will pool and ship a carload of wool Wednesday, June 23, from Xenia to the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers Association Warehouse at Columbus.

Altho the wool market has sagged badly, the directors of the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers Association urge shipping to the warehouse and storing the wool there so that when the proper market is found for the wool it can be sold without delay.

This is the second year Greene County farmers have pooled wool through this organization. Last year about 40,000 pounds of wool were shipped in this manner to the Columbus warehouse. The returns from the wool were more than satisfactory to the growers.

This year we are having a grading demonstration in connection with the shipping of the car of wool. R. A. Hammond manager of the Columbus warehouse will be present and grade as much wool as possible to show our farmers the different market grades of wool.

The demonstration and car for wool will be at the new Farmer's elevator on West Main street.

FESS TO BE SPEAKER AT FARMERS' PICNIC THURSDAY, JUNE 24

Congressman S. D. Fess of Yellow Springs will be the principal speaker at the Ninth annual picnic and Farmers' Field Day which will be held under the auspices of Greene County Pomona Grange, Thursday, June 24, at the Fair Grounds.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the picnic by the committee in charge and anticipations are that it will be the biggest of the annual events ever held. The program will begin at ten o'clock in the morning, a wheel barrow race, sack race, three-legged race, running races for men, boys, women and girls, tug of war with the fat men against the lean women a potato race war with the fat women pitted against the lean women, a potato race and other races contests and field day events are on the card. Prizes will be awarded in each of these contests.

The big picnic dinner an annual feature of the Farmer's picnic will be served at noon, and the speaking program will be held in the afternoon starting at 1:30 o'clock. Congressman S. D. Fess is expected to give an interesting address while the address of C. A. Dyer, Grange Tax Expert is expected to be helpful.

On the afternoon amusement program will be a slow race for Fords and a 'slow race for automobiles,' evidently meaning automobiles other than Fords, for which prizes will also be offered.

Music for the day will be furnished by the New Liberty band and refreshments will be served on the grounds.

RESISTANCE WILL BE OFFERED EFFORT TO STOP NEW RULE

New York, June 18.—Arnim Wiley, special assistant to the attorney general of the United States will leave today for Canton, Ohio, prepared to offer vigorous resistance to an effort which will be made by Charles E. Hughes to obtain a court order halting all prosecutions under the Lever act. The case is to be argued tomorrow.

The order sought by Mr. Hughes would stay the execution of the fine of $35,000 imposed upon C. R. Weed and Company of Buffalo, convicted of profiteering. Riley declares that if the stay is granted it will automatically stop all proceedings under the Lever act until it constitutionally has been passed upon by the supreme court.

Dayton, Friday morning. Mrs. Hickman spent most of her life in Greene county, living on a farm five miles south of Xenia. Her husband died 15 years ago, and for the last five years she made her home in Dayton with her son. Besides her son she is survived by a sister, Mrs. David Baker, of near Goes Station.
Funeral services will be held at the chapel in Woodland cemetery, Monday, at 2 o'clock.

NEWARK POLICE UNPAID

Newark, June 18.—Newark police met this afternoon to formulate plans to get an increase of salary and to get there salaries regularly. There is no money in the fund to pay salaries for the rest of the year. There have been six resignations in the last two weeks. Others are expected to follow. Final action on plans discussed was deferred.

Where is Relief From Blazing Skin Diseases?

Must I Endure Forever the Torturous Itching?

The skin is fed from the blood, and upon the condition of the blood depends whether or not your skin will be healthy and free from boils, pimples, scaly irritations, red eruptions and other disfiguring and unsightly disorders.

The sensible treatment that will show real results is a remedy that will cleanse the blood thoroughly and kill the germs that cause the trouble. And for this purpose no remedy ever made can approach the record of S. S. S., which cleanses the blood of the disease germs, at the same time building up the general health.

MARKET AND FINANCIAL NEWS

STOCKS

Extremely light trading has distinguished a market devoid of novel feature and without pronounced trend. Tight credit holds the trading under rein. Political uncertainties have played a leading part in calculations and marked hesitation developed pending a satisfactory outcome of the Republican convention. Present national and international conditions are admittedly critical and the presidential election this year has bearing upon the course of economic readjustment of an importance that can hardly be exaggerated.

Numerous critics of the market feel that conservative industrial issues have been depreciated without warrant. Notwithstanding cancellations in textiles and other lines, a majority of earnings will continue large. Earnings of the first half-year are in some instances sufficient to pay dividends for the entire year.

GRAIN

The government's wheat crop report is bullish, notwithstanding improvement of the winter wheat crop during May and an indicated spring crop materially larger than the crop of last year. On the other hand the crop promises to fall only about one-twentieth below the ten-year average. The action of cash wheat will necessarily influence corn. Advancing wheat will tend to elevate corn and vice versa. Argentine wheat exports this year will exceed 200,000,000 bushels, it is estimated, but the present effort to impose a duty on these exports may check the flow. The crop outlook in Western Canada is reported favorable and Canada will doubtless have a large surplus of wheat to export.

Car supply improves but slowly. Initial movement of the Southwest crop is less than three weeks removed.

LIVESTOCK

The cattle trade has shown signs of emerging from the slough of early spring and winter. Apparently the worst is over. Beef consumption is increasing. Pasturing is handicapped for want of funds. Stock cattle have been reported scarce at different centers. The demand for fresh pork will slacken with the warmer weather. Cold storage stocks of all meat are large at this season of the year, but will suffer heavy withdrawals as receipts decline. Summer arrivals are always light. Good live mutton is recovering. Trashy stuff meets little favor. The demand for western feeding lambs is expected to continue good throughout the coming season.

AGRICULTURE

Reduction of Agricultural Appropriation Bill—Senate Committee Makes Favorable Report on Borah Bill—Beet Sugar Interests Deadlocked.

The reduction in the annual appropriation for the department of Agriculture is singularly ill-timed and inopportune, inasmuch as food production in this country needs every stimulus and encouragement consistent with wise policy. As Secretary Meredith points out, the dollar will buy much less than formerly. The appropriation ought properly to be larger than in previous years in order to continue the same work. The current bill carries $6,000,000 less than the department's estimates and $2,185,000 less than last year.

Among important phases of government work that will suffer are the eradication of hog cholera and foot-and-mouth disease, forest conservation, grain supervision, and the dissemination of market data.

The Senate Public Lands Committee has ordered a favorable report on the Borah bill designed to aid ex-soldiers in buying farms and suburban homes and appropriating $300,000,000 for this purpose to be spent during the next 10 years. The feeling apparently is strong in Congress that the nation's fighters should receive some tangible reward for their sacrifice of health and time and opportunity. The farmers echo this sentiment, but feel that funds might better be devoted to the settlement of former service men upon eastern farms, where their labor is most needed, than to the reclamation of public lands in the far west.

The deadlock continues between best factories of Michigan and growers who refuse to raise beets this year at the price offered. The manufacturers refuse the growers' movement.

Reconcile the consumer to the justice of high prices for foodstuffs and the injustice of prices before the war, advise farm authorities. In identical the same manner labor is trying to reconcile the public to the justice of high wages and the injustice of low wages. With both movements the public has a good deal of sympathy. But the question of determining importance is: Who will pay the increase? Will it fall upon the man of means, who can well afford to pay three times the old price of food and labor, or will it fall upon classes of the population in a numerical preponderance that now receive little more than enough to sustain life?

Ten farmer must consider the interests of the consumer as well as his own. Higher prices that result in a broader distribution of wealth to the great mass of people are a forward step in progress. Co-operative effort will increase the wealth capable of distribution and therefore represents a higher form of progress than mere redistribution to moderately paid occupations of the wealth already existing.

Judging from the attitude of the Iowa State Farm Bureau Federation and other farm organizations, the farmer is considerably more interested in men and measures this year than in parties—and with ample reason. The voters are sick of partisanship and the prostitution of public service to private greed. Issues upon which the nation's safety and prosperity depend confront the major parties and demand the adoption of platforms and the nomination in the one case and integrity and ability in the other are undisputed.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

BAD LUCK CHAPTER 41.

I knew the two simple souls in that little Mohawk Valley town would not read too closely between the lines—Mother with her ignorance of anything but life as we had had it when Dad was alive, and Aunt Susan knowing nothing of city life. So I sent off my letter, sure it would prove satisfying.

I went to the corner to mail it about 7 o'clock. Then, again hungry, I went to the cafeteria for dinner. This time a cross looking blackhaired girl checked my tray. I felt suddenly depressed because of the incident. Yet I knew I couldn't hope always to see my white-haired friend with the cheerful smile.

When I returned to my room, I sat down and counted my money. I was absolutely frightened. Only two days and so much gone already! My meals, room rent, the bit I had dropped into the collection basket at church, the papers I had bought, had made a big hole in my little pile.

I must be more economical until I got work. But how?

I had read of working girls cooking over a gas jet, but never had really taken it literally. Now I looked at the single burner, weighing the possibility. It had been turned off to the smallest flame possible, to save gas no doubt. But I had found it difficult to read by it. Perhaps I could make a cup of tea, and by bringing in some buns, have my breakfast. It was coming summer, and I could have bread and milk for lunch—dinner, too, if necessary. I was fond of it, and it was nourishing. So I planned, not realizing that one must have a certain variety in food to keep well.

But I wasn't unduly worried over my funds. I would have work in a day or two at most. Then I would move to a better place, and have a better room.

I slept fitfully that night, waking with my mind full of thoughts of what I might find on the morrow. I was up early, and made a careful toilet, then started for my cafeteria for breakfast. I had coffee, eggs and toast. I might have a good deal of walking to do, and no time for luncheon.

I wish I could tell of the discouragements of that first day that I hunted employment in Chicago. It was breaking. It would have been even for a girl who was accustomed to looking for work—to me it was appalling.

"References, and experience" was, of course, the one great stumbling block. Respectability, desire to work, willingness to accept small wages until proof could be given that I earned more, were simply of no account.

It seemed that without these two open sesame, references and experience, I never could obtain work. But I had one qualification which helped me, altho at the time I did not realize it. I had inherited something of my breakfast. It was coming summer, gedness. I had promised my saddened Mother to make a home to her. I would do it—some way, somehow.

There was one place left at 4 o'clock. I knew I looked fagged and tired, that it was perhaps not wise to present myself under the circumstances. But I was near the office building. The advertisement had read:

"Office girl wanted; must be neat, willing and obliging." I surely was neat, and the Lord knew I was willing. I would try my best to please.

Only I would secure the position if some one had not already gotten it before me.

I easily found the building. It was a big skyscraper on La Salle street. I was not kept long waiting. A door marked "private" opened, and the shock-headed, preckled office boy to whom I had stated my errand, motioned me to enter.

At first I was a bit bewildered by the magnificence of the room, which was rampanly flashy, as was the big double-chinned occupant who sat beside the mahogany table.

"Well, young lady, what can I do for you," he asked as I stood just inside the door. When he spoke his chin shook like jelly, giving him a most peculiar look. His eyes, too, seemed to close because of the fat pouches underneath and the heavy overhanging eyebrows.

"I came in answer to your advertisement. I hope I am not too late."

Tomorrow—Discouragement.

MARKET AND FINANCIAL NEWS

STOCKS
Extremely light trading has distinguished a market devoid of novel feature and without pronounced trend. Tight credit holds the trading under rein. Political uncertainties have played a leading part in calculations and marked hesitation developed pending a satisfactory outcome of the Republican convention. Present national and international conditions are admittedly critical and the presidential election this year has bearing upon the course of economic readjustment of an importance that can hardly be exaggerated.

Numerous critics of the market feel that conservative industrial issues have been depreciated without warrant. Notwithstanding cancellations in textiles and other lines, a majority of earnings will continue large. Earnings of the first half-year are in some instances sufficient to pay dividends for the entire year.

GRAIN.
The government's wheat crop report is bullish, notwithstanding improvement of the winter wheat crop during May and an indicated spring crop materially larger than the crop of last year. On the other hand the crop promises to fall only about one-twentieth below the ten-year average. The action of cash wheat will necessarily influence corn. Advancing wheat will tend to elevate corn and vice versa. Argentine wheat exports this year will exceed 200,000,000 bushels. It is estimated, but the present effort to impose a duty on these exports may check the flow. The crop outlook in Western Canada is reported favorable and Canada will doubtless have a large surplus of wheat to export.

Car supply improves but slowly. Initial movement of the Southwest crop is less than three weeks removed.
